Sir:

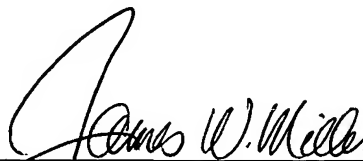

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.322 and/or 1.323, Intellex, Inc., the assignee of the entire right, title and interest in and to the above-identified United States Letters Patent, hereby requests that the attached Certificate of Correction be issued relating to this Patent.

Typographical errors occurred in claims 1 and 25 during the printing of the patent. In claim 1, the last subparagraph should have carried a letter prefix like the other subparagraphs, namely the prefix (e) should have appeared before the last subparagraph. In claim 25, the phrase "to the wing" should have read "to pull the wing", the word pull having been deleted. The requested Certificate of Correction corrects these errors.

JUN 5 2006

Accordingly, the attached Certificate of Correction should be issued by the Patent and Trademark Office. No fee is believed to be due because the errors being corrected are the mistake of the Patent and Trademark Office which arose during the printing of the patent.

Respectfully submitted,
